

Russell Kennedy's Inaugural Government CPD Day 2019

15 February 2019

8.30am	Arrival &amp; coffee
9.00 - 9.15am	Welcome	Attorney-General, the Hon Jill Hennessy MP
9.15 - 10.15am	What Lies Beneath – Royal Commissions in the Modern Era	Facilitated by Sarah Manly , Principal, Russell Kennedy  Panellists: Dr Ian Freckelton QC, Ben Lloyd , Principal and Jos Mulcahy , Principal, Russell Kennedy	CPD Point: 1 - Substantive Law
10.15 - 10.45am	Break
10.45 - 11.30am	Top 5 tips when exercising information-gathering powers	Presenter: Kylie Walsh , Special Counsel, Russell Kennedy	CPD Point: 0.5 - Substantive Law
11.30am – 12.30pm	Ethics and Government Lawyers	Presenters: Donna Cooper and Michael Dolan, Ethics4Lawyers	CPD Point: 1 - Ethics

12.30 – 1.30pm	Light lunch and refreshments provided
1.30 – 2.30pm	Statutory Interpretation – a structured approach Emma introduces a spiral approach to statutory interpretation. This approach enables interpreters to demonstrate that a comprehensive examination of the text and context has occurred and reduces potential error in analysis by ensuring relevant interpretative factors are identified and assessed in the quest for meaning.	Presenter: Emma Turner, Principal, Russell Kennedy	CPD Point:  1 - Professional skills
2.30 – 2.45pm	Break
2.45 – 3.30pm	#ThemToo? Responding to complaints of workplace bullying, discrimination and sexual harassment Anthony will discuss how to best respond to workplace complaints, with a focus on maximising the chance that the matter can be resolved internally. It will also cover the role that managers play in achieving that outcome.	Presenter: Anthony Massaro, Principal, Russell Kennedy	CPD Point:  0.75 - Practice Management and Business Skills
3.30 – 4.00pm	The effectiveness of E-discovery technology in managing litigation Keagan will explore the practicalities and cost savings achieved in employing E-discovery platforms in the context of litigation and regulatory investigations. It will look at techniques such as data analytics, threading and clustering, and how these techniques can achieve efficiencies when dealing with significant document volumes.	Presenter: Keagan O'Dwyer, Senior Associate, Russell Kennedy	CPD Point:  0.5 - Practice Management and Business Skills
4.00pm	Networking		